The News.

Our telegraphic news is not very extensive this morning.

A large fire occurred at Rockaway, Long Island, yesterday.

Another advance is announced in the New York breadstuffs market, the consequence of which is that a similar change is taking place in all the markets of the West. Our market, yesterday, was firm, at higher prices for Wheat and Oats, and Flour was held firm. The first lot of new Wisconsin Wheat offered for sale, arrived here yesterday, and was sold at $1 per bushel.

The weather continues pleasant, and very favorable for harvesting.

THE PRESIDENT VS. DOUGLAS.—The Washington correspondent of the Tribune, says the articles now being published in the Union, against Judge DOUGLAS, are written under the special direction of the President, if not with his own hand. The same statements and language are held commonly among the friends of the Administration, and it is generally recognized that a personal war is intended at every hazard, and the Federal officers are notified that every refusal to enlist will be followed by a removal, as was recently done in Chicago.

A NEW TRACK FROM THE JUNCTION TO MILWAUKEE.—The Watertown Democrat of yesterday, learns that the Milwaukee, Watertown and Barraboo Valley Railroad Company have surveyed a new line from the Junction to the depot grounds of the Lake Shore Railroad in this city, and intend to begin its construction at an early day.—This change has become a matter of necessity as well as of policy. The increasing business of the Watertown road, and the public convenience, have long rendered the improvement desirable and important. A very favorable route has been discovered for the new track—one that can be cheaply built. As things now are, every year the Mississippi Company receive for the use of a small section of their track, a sum of money sufficient to grade and purchase ties for the entire length of the proposed extension. The present arrangement is very inconvenient—subjecting one party to the caprices of another, and causing trouble and delay. There is now a fair chance that this partnership business will be dispensed with before a great while.

NEW LIGHT-HOUSE ON THE ST. CLAIR FLATS.—Operations were commenced last week for building two light-houses on the St. Clair Flats. They will be situated at the South end of the channel, which is being dredged, one on each side, and their lights will be so placed that a vessel can find her course through the channel as well in the night as in the day. At the point at which they are to be built the water is about ten feet deep. The foundation is to be of stone placed on piles, and will be made so firm as never to be affected by storms. The lights will be about forty-five feet above the surface of the water, and will be of such an order that they can be seen in all those portions of the lake where they will be needed. The structures are to be of wood. An appropriation was made some time ago for the purpose, but it has never been used.

LAKE STEAMERS.—The Buffalo Express states that GEORGE LAW, the great steamboat man, was in that city on Saturday, having in view the re-establishment of a superb line of steamers on the lakes. The matter is still under consideration; and should Mr. LAW finally conclude to put the line in operation, we wish him abundant success.

There can hardly be a doubt that a line of first-class steamers, three times a week, say between Buffalo and the ports on Lake Michigan, will be abundantly sustained. The Propellers now plying on the same route carry large loads of passengers and full freights.

Shipments from Columbus.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Noticing the statements in the Sentinel of the comparative amounts of freight forwarded during the month of June from the Edgerton and Monroe stations on the M. & M. R. R., I beg leave to call your attention to the amount both bought and shipped during three weeks of the same month from this place. The following I have obtained from the agent, Mr. Vincent:

Wheat, ...	37,021 bu.
Flour, 18 bbls., or, . . .	85 "
Oats, ...	14,672 "
Corn, ...	327 "
Barley, ...	289 "
Beans, ...	61 "
	52,356

The result is, then, that Columbus, a village of about fifteen hundred inhabitants, in twenty-one days of the month of June, the only time that the road was in running order on account of damage done by the freshets, leads Edgerton (I will leave out the beans, as they might seem windy) on the aggregate amount of grain shipped, 21,060 bus., and Monroe 10,128 bus. We make no mention of the other articles shipped, as we have some little regard for the feelings of Edgerton and Monroe.

Yours,
G. W. HAZLETON.

CROPS IN EUROPE.—The Chicago Tribune of yesterday contains the following item:

The following is an extract from a private letter, written at London, England, to a gentleman in this city, under date of July 3. It gives some information relative to the crops:

LONDON, July 3, 1858.

You seem to have all the rain on your side of the world; this has been the dryest season known in Europe for many years. To such an extent has it been so, that the spring crops, such as barley, beans and peas, are well nigh burnt up and all but an entire failure. On the Continent they are cutting the green rye to keep the cattle alive; they have had no grass to speak of, and are therefore badly off. This has given an impetus to that branch of trade affected as above. Wheat, on the contrary, is favored by the dry weather.

ACCIDENT TO A BISHOP.—Rev. Mr. O'Reilly, Catholic Bishop of Connecticut, was thrown from a carriage, near Buffalo, a few days ago, and had a leg fractured.

For the Sentinel.

Hon. Luther Hanchett, of Portage County.

EDITOR SENTINEL—Dear Sir:—There is no doubt but that the Bogus Democracy are intending to make a strong effort to elect some part of the Congressional ticket, and it behooves the Republican party to bring forward their best men, in order that our delegation in Congress may present an unbroken front, as the last has done, against the aggressions of the South.

Among those named as candidates for the Republican nomination in the Second, or Western district, is Hon. LUTHER HANCHETT, of Portage county.

Without disparaging the qualifications, or claims of others, permit me to say, that no man in the State has a firmer hold on the hearts of the people, than Mr. HANCHETT. Able, consistent, and fearless in his advocacy of Republican principles, a good constitutional lawyer, keenly alive to the necessity of protecting the States, against the aggressions of the Federal Government. I venture the opinion, that Mr. HANCHETT has no superior in the State, for the position alluded to. He has troops of friends, and no enemies.

He is one who would far outrun the party strength in some localities, while there is no Republican in the district, conservative, or radical, who would not cheerfully, and heartily support him if nominated. Can the District do better?

A REPUBLICAN OF THE SECOND DISTRICT.

CONDITION OF THE WISCONSIN BANKS—STATEMENT OF THE BANK COMPTROLLER.—The semi-annual official statement of the Bank Comptroller occupies a large portion of our space, to-day, covering nearly the entire first page. It contains many interesting items which, however, we have picked out, as to wade through its massed of figures would be a job that our readers might rather have some one else do for them.

The total amount of banking capital in the State is $7,135,000
Total amount of circulating notes is 4,423,919
The total amount of specie on hand is 388,005,76
The stocks deposited to secure the circulation amount to 4,398 490
In addition, the notes and bonds of bank owners, required by law to be filed is over 800,000

There are 91 banks in the State, of which 17 commenced business since Jan. 1st, 1858, and three commenced business since July 1st. The latter 3 are not included in this report.

The banks having the largest deposit account, in their order, are as follows:

State Bank of Wisconsin, Mil	$324,691 55
Marine & F Ins. Co. Bank, do	84,785 03
Juneau Bank, do	227,959 64
State Bank, Madison	164,301 07
Janesville	141,817 90
Watertown	71,500 90
Beloit	68,542 33
Sheboygan	49,131 49
Portage	59,251 94
Beaver Dam	31,221 39

A Double Murder.

MONTPELIER, Vt., July 17.

A shocking affair occurred yesterday, in the adjoining town of Calais. A young man about 18 years of age, named Ariel Martin, took his rifle in the morning, went into a neighboring haying field, put himself in ambush, and as Mr. Wheelock, the owner, made his appearance to commence work, shot him deliberately through the heart. Mr. Wheelock fell at once, and in five minutes breathed his last. Martin immediately hurried off to another farm, where he met a laborer named Ainsworth, and after exchanging a word or two with him, shot him also.—Ainsworth staggered into the house not far distant, and died in about an hour and a half. The neighborhood became alarmed, and Martin took to the woods. He soon afterwards, however, made his appearance in the road, and was arrested. On being questioned why he had been shooting these men, he replied, "because they were mean men." No cause can be assigned for the horrid act. There had been no difficulties between the parties, and between Martin and Wheelock a considerable degree of intimacy had existed. Both of the unfortunate men were young and had families. Martin has always been considered rather weak-minded, but has never been supposed insane. The affair is undergoing a thorough investigation.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Cyrus Adams, et. al., plff. in error, vs. E. D. Filer, deft. in error. Milwaukee circuit. Argument resumed and completed.

WEDNESDAY, July 21.

John A. Daniels, of Trempeleau, admitted as an attorney of the court.

Nathans Story, et. al., appellants, ads., Sheldon C. Hall, et. al., respondents. Argued by Emmons for appellants, and by Finches, Lynde and Miller for respondents.

Napoleon B. Van Slyke, respondent, vs. Stephen D. (Pump) Carpenter and Rolla A. Law, appellants, (four cases—"the libel suits.") Dane circuit. Argued by Knapp and Ryan for appellants, and by Hopkins and Smith for respondents.—Madison Journal.

THE HAIR OF THE PRESIDENTS.—In the Patent office at Washington, there are many objects of interest connected with the government, and those who administered its affairs in times gone by. While examining some of these objects of curiosity when in Washington, in December last, there was nothing that struck us so forcibly as the samples of small locks of hair taken from the heads of the different Chief Magistrates, from President Washington down to President Pierce, secured in a frame, covered with glass. Here is, in fact, a part and parcel of what constituted the living bodies of those illustrious individuals, whose names are as familiar as household words, but who now live only in history and the remembrance of the past.

The hair of Washington is nearly a pure white, fine and smooth in its appearance.

That of John Adams is nearly the same in color, though perhaps a little coarser.

The hair of Jefferson is of a different character, being a mixture of white and auburn, or a sandy brown, and rather coarse. In his youth, Mr. Jefferson's hair was remarkable for its bright color.

The hair of Madison is coarse, and of a mixed white and dark.

The hair of Monroe is a handsome dark auburn, smooth and free from any admixture whatever. He is the only President, excepting Pierce, whose hair has undergone no change in color.

The hair of John Quincy Adams is peculiar, being coarse and yellowish grey in color.

The hair of Gen. Jackson is almost a perfect white, but coarse in its character, as might be supposed by those who have examined the portrait of that old hero.

The hair of Van Buren is white and smooth in appearance.

The hair of Gen. Harrison is fine white, with a slight admixture of black.

The hair of John Tyler a mixture of white and brown.

The hair of James K. Polk is almost a pure white.

The hair of Gen. Taylor is white, with a slight admixture of brown.

The hair of Millard Fillmore is, on the other hand, brown, with a slight admixture of white.

The hair of Franklin Pierce is a dark brown, of which he has a plentiful crop.—Wilmington Journal.

A NOBLE ENTERPRISE.—We understand, and take the greatest pleasure in announcing, that our distinguished and wealthy townsman, Wm. B. Astor, Esq., has determined to build three magnificent steamships, so constructed that they can be used for commercial or naval purposes. The object that Mr. Astor has in view is to give work to several thousand suffering mechanics and laborers at present out of employment. When the vessels are completed, he will offer them for sale to the U.S Government, and in case they should decline, to the European powers. Any surplus that may remain after payment of the cost of construction and a reasonable interest, Mr. Astor intends to divide among the workmen. The cost will be about $3,000,000.—N. Y. News.

"THE SENTINEL LOCAL CORRECTED."—Under this caption, Mr. A. FEUCHTWANGER, a personage who has before now figured in our Circuit, as well as Police Court reports, addresses us through the columns of the News in the following style:

"TO THE LOCAL OF THE 'SENTINEL.'"—In your notice of a fine imposed upon me by the Police Court on the 20th inst., it is due even to me, that you make the following correction.—You say I was fined for committing an assault and battery upon a man who I owed four shillings too for sawing wood, two years ago. Now the fact is I have not been a resident of Milwaukee but a year and two months. It is true that the man sawed wood for me, and by subsequent services he owed me five dollars, and as he was unable to pay, I balanced the debt. I have no more to say, further than that the man insulted me, and I struck him for it, as I would do any other meddling non descript.

A. FEUCHTWANGER.

Mr. FEUCHTWANGER calls himself a lawyer, but there are people who call him a "shyster." However this may be, the case which he makes out against us is not very lawyer-like, and scarcely entitles him to the rank of a smart shyster. He pretends to correct the "local of the Sentinel," but the said local does not accept the correction, and we are of the opinion that it would have been full as well for Mr. FEUCHTWANGER to have kept out of the papers as much as possible. What we said of the affair, was alleged under oath by a number of witnesses in the Police Court, and was not contradicted.

The "fact," Mr. FEUCHTWANGER says, is, "I have not been a resident of Milwaukee but a year and two months." This is as likely to be untrue as otherwise; it has nothing, however, to do with what we said. About the man's owing him $5, the same remark is applicable. No mention was made of it in the police court, therefore we know nothing about it. The complainant swore that FEUCHTWANGER owed him four shillings, and that asking for it was the cause of FEUCHTWANGERS committing the assault and battery upon him, neither of which assertions did the said FEUCHTWANGER deny. In Mr. FEUCHTWANGER'S "correction," he next says, "the man insulted me, and I struck him" &c.—Three honest looking men, swore that the only insult which the complainant offered to FEUCHTWANGER on the occasion in question, was asking him for what the man alleged was his due, and several others were ready to testify to the same, but Judge WALWORTH did not consider their testimony necessary, and fined the offender $10 and costs. In Mr. FEUCHTWANGER'S "correction" he exhibits the same dishonesty which he has the reputation of exercising towards his clients. This is all we have to say at present about Mr. FEUCHTWANGER.

P. S.—After the above had been written, Mr. MAGNUS GEISINGER, the complainant in the case above alluded to, called at our office and wished us to say that FEUCHTWANGER'S statement that he, (GEISINGER,) owed him $5,00, was untrue.—He says he does not now, nor never did, owe FEUCHTWANGER a single cent, and that the only transaction he ever had with the said FEUCHTWANGER, was sawing a load of wood for him, which is not yet paid for. Just as we had supposed.

EXAMINATION FOR TEACHERS AND CANDIDATES FOR SCHOLARSHIPS IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.—The examination for Teachers and candidates for admission into the High School, will take place on Monday and Tuesday, the 30th and 31st days of August. Due notice will be given of time, place and mode of such examination. Should the new Second Ward School Building be completed and ready for use at that time—as it ought to be—there will be a Principal and seven or eight other Teachers required for that School, and as the upper department is to be organized, as in the Seventh Ward, as a High School, there will be one hundred or more scholarships there to be filled.

A Principal is also wanted for the First Ward Public School, and there may be several vacancies among the corps of Teachers in the other schools. In the Seventh Ward High School there are a few vacancies to be filled, the terms of the Teachers employed there during the past year having expired, new engagements will have to be made for the year ensuing.

THE FIRST NEW WHEAT.—The first lot of new Wheat in the market, arrived yesterday from Palmyra, and was sold by Messrs. SCRIBA & FLOWERS at $1 per bushel. It was a very nice lot of white winter, about sixty bushels, and was bought by Mr. TRUMAN HIBBARD, of the Layton Warehouse. We may now expect new wheat every day, but not to any extent for a week or two. Another lot of inferior quality, the berry being shrunken, was sold at 85c. It all came from Mr. Z. WILSON, of Palmyra. Since harvesting has commenced, we generally have encouraging accounts of the productiveness of the crop, though from some quarters we hear very unfavorable reports. The general opinion is, however, that our State will upon the whole be blessed with a bountiful harvest.

SECOND WARD SCHOOL HOUSE.—There is much work yet to be done, before this fine structure can be completed and ready for use. It is greatly needed, as well by the Ward itself, as by the numerous pupils on the west side of the river, who are now prepared for admission into a High School. The Aldermen, Councillors and School Commissioners of the Second Ward ought to make common cause in this matter and by, daily visits to the building and constant "burrying up" of the contractors, ensure the completion of the work by the 1st of September.

THE DOGS HAVE VANISHED.—Of the army of curs that prowled through our streets not more than three weeks ago, "many one" is now to be seen. They have all vanished quietly in less than a month, and most of them have taken a trip "to the other side of Jordan." For this good riddance we are indebted particularly to Mr. Strychnine. Timid people can now quiet their fears of meeting mad dogs, for we have not really seen a canine in the streets for a full week.

THE NEW CITY DIRECTORY.—We are requested to state that those subscribers to the New City Directory, who have not yet been supplied with their copies, can procure them at the Bookstore of E. TERRY & Co., or at the Directory office, 134 East Water Street.

NEW PLAN FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.—Professor BROCKWAY, the inventor, originator and proprietor of the line of city hacks, and BROCKWAY'S line of omnibusses, has recently discovered a new remedy and certain cure for coughs, colds, asthmas and consumption, an infallible remedy for dyspepsia, and a never-failing cure for worms and toothache. The remedy is simple, extremely easy of application and warranted never to fail. It consists in a ride in one of his omnibusses over a portion of Division street. The great commotion caused by this ride is such as to prove a general alterative and efficacious stimulant to the whole system, acting temporarily upon the liver, stomach, spleen and respiratory organs, stimulating the secretions and developing the muscles in the effort to maintain the equilibrium. Those taking this prescription will be charged five cents each, with ten cents additional, for insurance. City Fathers will be carried over the entire distance free of charge, provided the Professor is furnished with a bond holding the city harmless from any damages from upsetting, breaking down, loss of life, &c.

P. S. During the next meeting of the Council, omnibusses will leave Prospect street, opposite the residence of Gen. PAINE, every fifteen minutes, to carry persons, residents of that street, to and from the Common Council room free of charge.

P. S. 2d. BROCKWAY says that his contract for running omnibusses expires in October, and that he will certainly withdraw his line, if the City Fathers do not fix up Division street.

WITHDRAWAL OF THE SOUTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FROM THE PRESBYTERY OF MILWAUKEE—VINDICATION OF THE REV. MR. DAY.—At a meeting of the members of the South Presbyterian Church, held on Monday evening, July 19th, 1858, the following preambles and resolutions were adopted, with but one dissenting voice:

Whereas, At the organization of this Church the Elders were instructed to assist in forming the Presbytery of Milwaukee, and to place this Church under the care of said Presbytery, reserving to the members of the Church the right to withdraw from the Presbytery, at any time a majority of them should so determine, at a meeting called for that purpose; and

Whereas, Due notice as to the time and place of this meeting has been given, also the object stated in accordance with the requirements of the article referred to, therefore,

Resolved, That we, as members of the South Presbyterian Church, do withdraw the name of said Church from the care of said Presbytery, the same to take place when the Clerk of the said Presbytery shall be officially informed of the action this meeting.

Resolved, That a committee of three members of this Church, be instructed by this meeting, to convey in person, an official copy of these resolutions to the stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Milwaukee.

The following preambles and resolutions were adopted unanimously.

Whereas, Certain reports are in circulation, charging the Rev. Samuel Day, pastor elect of this church, with having been the means of creating a feeling among his members in opposition to the interests of the Presbytery of Milwaukee; and,

Whereas, Such reports are not only calculated to injure the standing of the church, but tend greatly to prejudice the character of Mr. Day, as a minister of the Gospel; therefore

Resolved, That we sincerely regret the circulation of any such reports.

Resolved, That we recognize in Mr. Day an able and faithful pastor, whose time since his coming among us, has been devoted to the interests of this Church, and the cause of Christ in this part of our city, and whatever be his preference for any particular form of church government, those preferences have been kept to himself.

And we feel it our duty as members of this church to say that these reports are not only unGENEROUS, but are untrue, and we cheerfully exonerate Mr. Day from any such charges as those circulating such reports would wish to heap upon him.

Resolved, That we, as members of this Church assume all the responsibility of the proceedings of this meeting, pledging ourselves to one another, to stand by its interests, and to do all in our power to build up a Church that will be an honor to the cause of Christ, and a blessing to this community.

LEONARD H. BOOLE, Clerk.

THE HIGHEST PRICE OF THE SEASON.—Mr TRUMAN HIBBARD, of the Layton warehouse, bought yesterday, 280 bushels choice white winter wheat at $1 per bushel, which is the highest price that has been paid in the market this season.—He also bought 60 bushels, the first arrival of new wheat, at the same price. Mr. HIBBARD operates quite extensively in wheat, and he has the reputation of being one of the most careful buyers in the market.

CRICKET FOUND IN THE RIVER.—One of Simm's dredges, which is at work near the foot of Michigan street, hauled up from the bottom of the river, yesterday morning, a hogshead, and crate of crockery ware, which, although in good order, had the appearance of having been there for many years. The men on the dredge had quite a haul, and they considered it quite a "god-send." The crockery, it was thought, may have been dropped in the river, when being removed, on the occasion of some of our big fires.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—John Dunn, a teamster, was fined $2 and costs for leaving his horse standing upon the street unhitched.—Ludwig Ellerts, was fined $10, and Frederick Ellerts, Christian Plum, and Frederick Hoppernoss, $5 and costs each, for committing an assault and battery upon the person of Frederick Roese. Charles Lucas was fined $1 for drunkenness.

GENUINE WINES AND LIQUORS.—Messrs. F. JACOBI & Co., No. 20 Market Square, in Murray's new Block, are extensive Importers of genuine Wines and Liquors. Their stock is large, well selected, and warranted. Those in want of such articles will be sure to find them of the best quality, at the store of Messrs. JACOBI.

CANARY BIRD STOLEN.—A canary bird was stolen from its cage while hanging in the verandah of A. H. BURDICK'S residence, yesterday morning. The thief left the cage in the street near the gate, which Mr. BURDICK says he can have by calling for it, or will receive a fair compensation for the bird.

☞ The following item of news we clip from the New York Daily Times:

His Excellency, the Hon. A. W. Randall, Governor of Minnesota, is in town, stopping at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

☞ There is no longer any excuse for people in the country visiting Milwaukee, and bringing all the family, when they can stop at such a House as the American, for $1 per day. As P. KANE & SON are bound to fix their prices according to the times. jy19g893d1w

☞ DE GRATH'S ELECTRIC OIL.—This celebrated remedy for Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Erysipelas, Eruptions, Sprains, Burns, Poisons, &c., is manufactured only by Prof. Chas. De Grath, everywhere known as the original discoverer, at his old establishment, in Eighth st., below Chestnut, No. 89, Philadelphia.

N. B.—The sick, for their own safety, must avoid all worthless counterfeits, from the use of which the worst consequences have followed to invalids who have been deceived into buying them. An article which is confessed, in the advertisement of it, to be only an imitation of Prof. Chas. De Grath's Electric Oil, is sometimes offered to the public by a person in this city, who pretends to have picked up a knowledge of the mode of preparing it, while in the employ of Prof. De Grath.

This is an entirely unfounded pretension. A person who now advertises an imitation of the Electric Oil, was once engaged with Prof. De Grath as a book-keeper and correspondent, and thus made himself known to some customers; but he never was entrusted with the manufacture of the medicine, of which he is entirely ignorant. Of this person, it is not necessary to say more, at present, as, of course, no one will buy an imitation, when they can obtain the original, genuine article, by application to Prof. Chas. De Grath, at his long established store, No. 89 South Eighth st., a few doors below Chestnut.

☞ For sale by BRADFORD BROTHERS, and J. H. Tesch, Milwaukee; Fahnestock & Davis, and Reed & Co., Chicago; and by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the country. jy23dawlw

GODFREY'S
EXTRACT OF ELDER FLOWERS
For softening the Skin and improving the Complexion.

EUGENE DUPUY, 609 BROADWAY, N.Y.
Sole Agent for the United States.

THE object of this Circular is to give publicity to the most valuable and efficient Remedy that has yet been introduced to the practice of Medicine, for the purpose of removing every unsightly appearance from the Skin, and thereby preserving to it the full period of life nearly all the firmness and freshness of youth. Extensive experience and minute observation have long satisfied the Proprietor that if applied as directed it will speedily remove Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, &c., and quickly cure all Pimples, Humors and Eruptions which may disfigure the human face, and will also impart to the Skin the most delightful softness and delicate purity; in short, to preserve a pleasing complexion through life, nothing is required but the use of Godfrey's Extract of Elder flowers, the sweetest and yet the most perfect boast of British Nature. This admirable preparation of Elder Flowers is very fragrant as a perfume. Elder Flowers have from the earliest ages been esteemed as a mild and harmless, yet most perfect Beautifier of the Skin. Tan, Sun-burns, Freckles, Redness, &c., it will speedily and completely remove.

Children.—It is equally beneficial and perfectly innocent, even to the youngest infant.

SHAVING.—It is valuable beyond anything, annihilating every pimple, and all roughness rendering the skin soft and firm, preparing it so completely for the razor.

FAMILY LOTION.—Godfrey's Extract of Elder Flowers will be found beyond all praise, and needs only a trial to be approved.

AGENTS.—Cary, Howard & Sanger, New York; Schieffelin Bros. & Co., New York; J. W. Norcross & Co., Boston and New York; P. C. Weis & Co., New York. And all other Wholesale and Retail Druggists.

Resignation of the Party.

Under this head the News of yesterday contains rather a sensible article, addressed to "two or three Democratic papers in the U. S., which are devoted almost exclusively to the work of reading men out of the Democratic party," and mildly remonstrating with the journals in question, for wasting so much time in these fruitless and unprofitable labors. After recounting the difficulties attendant upon this "reading out" practice, and reminding the self-constituted censors of the party that in nine cases out of ten the men thus read out refuse to stay out, the News sagely concludes:

The theory is very fine, and if it could be successfully reduced to practice, would tend to purify the party, although it might not strengthen it. But after watching the working of it, for some years, we have come to the conclusion that the experiment has proved a failure."

The conversion of the News to this sensible opinion must have been very recent, for no longer ago than Saturday last, it published certain editorial "Reflections on matters connected with the Democratic Organization," in which sundry gentlemen, personally obnoxious to the News, were very summarily "read out of the Democratic party," and peremptorily forbidden to return to the fold on pain of—displeasing the editor of the News. As it is nearly a week since this article appeared, the News may have forgotten its tenor, or the editor may have been "out of town when he wrote it." As well, therefore, to recall it to his mind, as to show how very differently the News of Saturday talked from the News of yesterday, we copy a few extracts from this genteel bull of excommunication.

In States where the elections are vigorously contested and the issue uncertain and varying, there are two classes of politicians who acquire an unmerited importance. One of these is always low in character and association, cunning in disposition and unprincipled in action.

* * * * *

The other and far more important class consists of men who aspire to the leadership of the party and the monopoly of its honors and emoluments. The only regulating principle of their action is an overweening selfishness; the only end, immediate or ultimate, is their personal good. They acknowledge no fealty to their avowed party, and only pay allegiance to their own interests. No party nominations, however honestly made, have the least binding effect upon them, unless they have been made from their friends and at their suggestion.

* * * * *

With the latter class we have to treat in this article, not only because they are the most influential and dangerous, but because our party is now at the bar bountifully cursed with them. We also believe that they can be annihilated, and that it is the duty of consistent Democrats everywhere and in all stages of party relation to declare against them an uncompromising war. They should have no consideration at our hands, and should be either drummed in disgrace out of the army of the Democracy, or be led to political execution at the next convenient tree. There is no safety as long as these spies and disorganizers are in our ranks.

* * * * *

If a party is to be maintained in this State, we must have strict rules, it flexible discipline, and certain and speedy punishment for their violation.

* * * * *

Let them leave the party, or let them comply with those rules which are essential to its well being and success. The term party has no significance where no discipline is enforced and no authority recognized to which all opinions and preferences defer.

This, certainly, is a pretty extensive specimen of "reading men out of the Democratic party."—The News, not content with giving them notice to quit, denounces them as "spies and disorganizers," and coolly proffers the alternative of being "drummed out of camp," or hung on the "next convenient tree."

The News proceeds to apply its general remarks to our own Congressional District, and thus continues:

We are soon to hold a Congressional Convention in this district. It is necessary and proper that there should be absolute acquiescence in the decision of that body. If any one pretending to be a Democrat goes into that convention with a mental reservation to support the nominee, if his preference, or bolt him if otherwise, he hath denied the faith and is worse than a Republican. No matter whether the candidate chosen be a Lecomptonite or an Anti-Lecomptonite, it is the duty of all claiming to be Democrats to ratify the nomination cordially and vigorously. If any man oppose the candidate because they have heretofore differed in this particular, let this man be accursed. Let the sentence of ex communicati n be read against him in every public assembly, and let him have no part or parcel with us until his repentance has been sealed by time and humiliation.

Parties like States require laws and law makers. Laws without sanction are powerless. If the existence of the State depends upon the prompt enforcement of the penalty of the broken laws, so the existence and efficiency of a party-organization depend upon the certain and severe punishment of those who violate its authority. Obedience is necessary and must be enforced—Better to go to victory and prosperity with one eye and one hand, than to defeat and adversity with a body whole but corrupt. Cut them off! Cut them off!

This is decidedly truculent. Everybody knows, too, the parties that the News wants "read out," and the offence of which they have been guilty. We must confess, however, that after reading its philippic of Saturday, we are more than ever confirmed in the wisdom of its Thursday's conclusion, to wit:

"The theory is very fine, and if it could be successfully reduced to practice, would tend to purify the party, although it might not strengthen it. But after watching the working of it for some years, we have come to the conclusion that the experiment has proved a failure."

DISCORDANT NOTES.—The Argus lays down the repeal of the assessment law as the democratic issue of the next campaign. The Ozaukee Advertiser, an ardently democratic sheet, favors the present law. The Appleton Crescent, another leading democratic organ says: "We avow it as our purpose to labor for its essential modification." No wonder the Argus complains that the democratic press declines following its lead.

We side with the Crescent in this matter.—Madison Journal.

Democratic Issues in South Carolina.

The South Carolinian, the organ of the Democracy of the Palmetto State, published at Columbia, says the following interrogatories have been submitted to the candidates for the Legislature:

1. Are you in favor of the re-opening of the African Slave Trade?

2. If called upon to vote for a senator to represent this State in the United States Senate, would you support a National or State Rights Democrat?

3. Are you in favor of our State being represented in National Conventions for nominating candidates for the Presidency?

"It is instructive to remark" that the South Carolina Democracy, notwithstanding their peculiar tests and their "Know-Nothing and other Anti-Democratic affiliations," are in full favor with the Administration. On the other hand the Democracy of Illinois, who follow the lead of Douglas and are accused of no other crime than opposition to the Lecompton Swindle, are denounced by the Washington Union as "traitors," and deprived by the President of what little of "the spoils" had fallen to their share. Mr. BUCHANAN admires and adopts the South Carolina model as the standard of Democratic orthodoxy, and rejects the Illinois pattern as bogus.

THE NEWS AND THE ADMINISTRATION.—Our "rotary" friend of the News, in a brief reference to its present and past opinions, says:

The republican papers are very generally of the opinion, that we are not sustaining the Administration as vigorously as we ought to. Some of them attribute our short comings, in this respect, to our loss of office; but we recollect very distinctly, that these same republicans expressed their convictions, very decidedly, that we were not giving the Administration as much support, as we were under obligations to give it, when we were in office.

This opinion of the Republican papers is "very generally" shared in by the Administration Democrats. None of them, we believe, regard the News as any longer an Administration organ.—And the News itself forbids such a supposition by its constant laudations of Mr. DOUGLAS, its denunciations of the Lecompton and English swindles, and its taunts about "the Know Nothing and other Anti Democratic affiliations," which have influenced Mr. BUCHANAN'S appointments to office. It is true too, as the News states, that the Republican papers very generally attribute its change of front to loss of office, and assuredly believe that if there had been no change in our city Post Office, there would have been none in the political sentiments and conduct of the News.

Receiving Grain in Bulk.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—By your paper of this morning, I see the Janesville Gazette censures the business men of Milwaukee for not providing the necessary means to store and handle grain in bulk, as well as Chicago.

Most your readers may know where the blame is, allow me to state the facts:

At a time in May last, when the Janesville grain dealers were sending their Grain to Chicago, a Resolution was passed at a meeting of the Mil. & Miss. Directors authorizing the Superintendent to lay down a track across the street, to my warehouse, a distance of 300 feet, and to allow me to take in the Janesville grain in Bulk.

This work was done and my house fitted to receive the same on satisfactory terms to Janesville grain dealers. But on the arrival of the first car a protest was made by some of the board of directors, and no grain or cars have been allowed to be taken to my house, although often solicited to do so by the grain dealers at Janesville.

I am and have been, since this track was put down, prepared and ready to handle all Janesville grain in bulk, on as favorable terms as any house in Chicago, and will do so to their satisfaction.

The blame rests entirely with the M. & M. R. R. Directors, in not allowing the grain to come to my house.

L. J. HIGBY.

Milwaukee, July 21.

WISCONSIN RAILWAY SECURITIES.—The N Y Tribune of Monday last, in its money article, has the following in reference to two of our leading railways:

Milwaukee and Mississippi fell off to 17½, and was heavy. The company, it seems, make but slow progress funding the floating debt, which has been increased to $600,000 and a rumor prevails in the street that the road is likely to go into the hands of receivers, unless the propositions made to creditors are accepted. The road is doing a very good business, but is in a position of embarrassment from this unfunded debt. This is the main cause of the recent depression in the market value of the stock

In railway bonds, La Crosse Land Grants were the leading security, with sales at $3,000, opening at 32½ and running down to 31 at the close. The movements in these bonds are the most mysterious and eccentric of any at the board; and while the threatened loss of the land grants on the one hand seems to have little or no effect in depressing their market value, the promised payment of the interest coupons, due August 1st seems to have an equally slight interest in raising them. Under all the circumstances the managers appear to possess a remarkable degree of perseverance and energy. The completion of the road to LaCrosse is counted upon as a matter of certainty before October 1.

THE NEW ASSESSMENT LAW.—A host of questions about the new assessment law. We have no time and less inclination to answer questions concerning that of which we know less after reading than we did before we heard of it and which we feared to read a second time, lest we should become so much mystified as to be unable to make out the schedule, required even of printer's property, wholly failing under the four-tenth head, and minus at that.

Suffice it to say that every man is required by the late act to swear positively to what the law is, and further, that we have been unable to detect anything but a compound of the most confused abstrusity heterogeneously agglomerated into a magnanimous legislative blunder, and sent to the very intelligent citizenship of the great State of Wisconsin to be deciphered, or stand as the great metaphysical problem of '58, among the future obsolete archives of the Badger State.

As a sample of the schedules that will be furnished to assessors, we copy a portion from one handed in to the 2nd ward officer of this city:

I. Horses,—None.

II. Mules and Asses,—My proportional interest in the Representatives who passed the assessment law.

VI. Pleasure carriages, &c.,—One old wheelbarrow.

XI. Manufactured articles,—Two babies.

MURDER AT STAR PRAIRIE.—On Monday morning last, John St. John, who resided in the town of Star Prairie, near Apple River, left his house for the purpose of fishing. Failing to return that night, search was made for him the next morning, by a party of his neighbors. After a short search his body was found in the middle of the river, a few rods below the place where he had evidently been fishing.

From the injuries found upon his head, it was evident that he was instantly killed by some terrible blow. Drs. Elliot and Thornhill of this city, made a post mortem examination, and found the scull fractured the whole length of the seam known as the coronal suture, and other severe injuries. From the facts elicited before the Coroner, suspicion was fastened upon one Hiram Schoonover, and he was accordingly arrested and lodged in the County Jail. He is now undergoing his examination, at the Court House, before Justice Aldrich.—Hudson Chronicle, 17th.

MORE SLAVES.—A week or two since, says a letter from Key West, a large slaver, a ship having on board one thousand slaves, appeared off that port and was spoken by a pilot. The Captain informed the pilot that she was chased off Cape St. Antonio by a British cruiser. "I have since learned her cargo was successfully landed at or near Bahia Honda. Recently a large shooner was fitted out on the coast of Yucatan; and I hear from good authority that she was furnished with water casks, &c., sent out from Philadelphia. A slave trade was taken near this port a short time ago, probably chased in by the Styx, as that vessel came in next day. The brig was seized—captain and crew, all foreigners, escaped."

THE CROPS.—During a ride through several counties, we heard some complaints of injury done to the wheat crop by rust; but from the general appearance of the standing and ripening grain, we should think that the damage is not so great as had been feared. Several fields of winter wheat were already cut and standing in shock—said to be good. Oats generally indicate an average yield. Grass is heavy on thick on the ground. Corn looks well.—Richland County Observer.

The Wheat Crop.

We cannot publish all the "Opinions of the Press," or all the letters of correspondents, in their speculations upon the Wheat Crop of the present season, and, if we did, we should confuse our readers beyond their ability of comprehension of the real truth. We will therefore summon our opinion, based upon the best evidence that we can obtain from extensive information, and give that to our readers for what it may be worth.

To begin with the earliest harvest of Wheat, we must start with Texas, where considerable wheat is now grown, and where, we think, the crop was full as good as the average of years, with a large breadth sown.

In the north part of Mississippi and Alabama there was a small breadth of Wheat sown, and there the crop was good.

In Upper Georgia, wheat is a staple crop, and we do not recollect hearing any complaint of its failure this season.

North Carolina not only grows wheat for its own use, but sends large quantities North, and the samples prove that the quality this year is good, and the yield has been fair for that State.

In Virginia, the crop is spotted. In some counties it is good; in others, almost an entire failure. The Rappahannock counties generally appear likely to give about half a crop of shrivelled grain. The State at large, we think, will yield much more than half a crop, or else we should have heard a great deal more croaking—a habit that Virginia wheat-growers are a little apt to indulge in.

The Wheat crop in Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania is generally large, and we do not think it behind the average of years.

New Jersey is not a large wheat growing State, but it has a magood Solid this year.

The New England States grow but little Wheat, but a good deal of Rye, and we believe the crop has not been better for many years.

The Western crop in the State of New York, as a general thing, must be considered a failure.—The midge has destroyed all the late planting fields of white wheat in Central New York.—There will be a moderate crop of the Mediterranean variety, which yield lightly, and is not a good sample for Jobbing purposes. Genesee, says that if he could by any means bring his wheat to maturity ten days earlier he could escape the midge. One field upon well-drained land, treated largely with salt, matured six days ahead of others, and escaped the midge. The loss in the State from this little pest, this year, will be so large that the value of the crop lost would do much toward draining all the wheat land in the State. The loss on the wheat crop to New York farmers this year will amount to an immense sum, and make wheat in some localities higher for home consumption than the general market price.

In all the great wheat growing region of the West the growth of straw has been immense, and all croakers say the berry is not in proportion to the indications of growth. We grant that, and ask, "When, if ever, did Western Wheat yield grain in proportion to the straw, taking Eastern crop as the standard?" We say, never; if it did, the crop would sometimes measure 100 bushels per acre. As to whether the crop in all the Western States will yield as much grain as the average of years, we think there is no room for dispute. The labor of thrashing is greater, and in some localities there will be fields scaffolding with blight and rust; but, on the whole, the quantity of grain will be as large as ever.

We doubt, however, whether there will be as much wheat for sale, since, in consequence of a short Corn crop, and ditto of Oats, more Wheat will be needed among the producers. We may be wrong in our opinion, and we stand ready to correct it upon proof, but, with our present information, we must believe that the general wheat crop of the United States will throw as many bushels upon the market as it ever did, and consequently there will be no "short-crop prices."—New York Tribune, July 19.

The Direct Trade with Liverpool—Arrival of the Lake Steamer Kentucky from Quebec.

LIVERPOOL, July 2, 1858.

CHAS. L. WILSON, ESQ.—Dear Sir:—According to my agreement with you, I must post you up a little. I sailed on the 12th of June in the screw-ship Glasgow, for Glasgow, Scotland, and arrived there on the 27th, and arrived here on the 28th. I had a good passage, very light winds, but fair. My companions across were mostly Scotch, but enough American blood to have a good time.

The brig Black Hawk and bark Chieftain arrived here on the 29th, all right and sound.—They made a twenty days' passage from Quebec. There has been a good deal of blowing about our Lake vessels crossing the Atlantic, but I think it has been tested now sufficient to show all that they can make a summer passage. The Hawk and Chief tain never lost a rope or a stave not hardly took a sea.

The Col. Cook is telegraphed off Hollingshead this P. M. She will be up to-night.

The grain markets look flat enough here. I am told by good authority that the crops all through Europe never looked better than at present. I can judge better for myself as to hat, after being here a short time. The market for staves and Walnut lumber is as good as I expected to find it.

Yours, truly,

E. L. BISSEL.

A MAN HUNG SINCE IN FUN AND IS HUNG IN EARNEST.—A very sad affair happened at Pelleton, near our city, on Thursday last. A Mr. Daniel Elliott, who lives in Princeton, butchering beeves and selling them in the neighborhood, hung himself in his slaughter house. He was in exceedingly good humor during the day and evening, and naturally of a playful disposition, gave vent to it by many playful things.—He had bought some cattle, had extended his business, was doing well, and felt lively and encouraged. He so expressed himself to his wife and friends. Going from the house to his stable he fed his horse, and taking his little girl of a neighbor's little boy, some thirteen years old, he went on about twenty-five yards from his house to the slaughter house. Here was a machine for raising dead cattle—a rope with a large hook in it run over a large reel and attached to a windlass with a ratchet. Adjusting the rope in a noose around his neck, he playfully bid the little girl to go tell her mother 'somebody was hanging out there who looked like Dan Elliott.' Then showing the boy exactly how many notches, he bid him, still laughing, to draw him up. The boy did so, and drew him off his feet. Once up he could not. Because of the ratchet, get him down, and when in answer to the little girl's anxiety Mrs. Elliott came out, her husband hung dead, his feet touching the floor, and the hook pressing hard against his jugular. From all the circumstances, it is not doubted that the act was done accidentally in a burst of playfulness.—Hamilton (Butler Co., O.) Intelligencer of the 14th.

AN ELOPEMENT FROM NIAGARA.—The Troy Times announces an elopement from Niagara, and gives the following particulars:

RENAWAY SHARPE.—On Tuesday night there arrived in town, from the Shaker settlement at Niagara, a young, pretty and modest demoiselle, with blooming red cheeks and a monster straw bonnet. Her skirts were innocent hoops, and her waist unspanned by corset bands. But her visits during the evening to various dry goods stores, in quest of mysterious skeletons, toilettas, stellas, guipures, laces, silks and velvets, induced a suspicion that there was a cat in the meal somewhere, and by a possibility, Ann, the prophetess, was to lose a fair disciple.

Yet the little Shakeress wisely kept her own counsel. Yesterday, however, a ruddy, fair-visaged young man, in homespun blue, made his appearance in town, and forthwith instituted a vigorous siege upon country merchant tailor shops, Hat stores, and the like—appearing in the course of time a new man. We have no disposition to follow the matter further; the finale of a subject so mysterious in its inception was last evening entrusted to a popular clergyman, who soon finished it up in a manner quite prevalent in the other world, but hardly recognized among the "verily, verily" order of the faithful.

STEAM ON THE CANAL.—The new steam canal boat, Charles Mack left this city on Saturday afternoon, with a heavy load of flour for New York. Upon the success or failure of the trip, depend many important results, and we shall await the news of her progress with quite as deep an interest as we do the laying of the Atlantic Telegraph Cable. We can get along as we have done, so far as trans-atlantic intelligence is concerned, but the successful use of steam on the canals is a step in advance which seems to be essential to the prosperity of Buffalo. On Thursday afternoon, we saw the Mack as she entered the harbor from a trial trip upon the bay. Her speed was then from 12 to 15 miles per hour, and so far as we could judge everything about her was working well. Of course it is not anticipated that she will make the same speed on the canal, but it is necessary that she should have the power to do it in the open bay, in order to compensate for the narrow waters. If she can average four miles per hour hence to Albany, the triumph is complete. And though we are deeply anxious that this experiment should succeed, we shall not lose confidence in the ultimate accomplishment of steam navigation on the canal, should it, like so many others, prove a failure.

When a steam canal boat has once made a trip hence to Albany at an average speed of four miles per hour, carrying as the Mack does, a full load for an ordinary boat, the battle of the canal will have been won.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, July 19.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY—THE HUMAN BLOOD.—A medical gentleman of this city has been experimenting upon the human blood for several years, and has arrived at some remarkable conclusions. It was well known that the theory has obtained for years that the conditions of the blood are the cause of health and disease. This theory has been a popular one by a large class of physicians and not without great merit. The medical gentleman to whom we allude, acting upon this theory, has been enabled by his investigations and experiments to ascertain the different qualities of the blood which produce different diseases. He does not claim the acute diseases as a general thing are dependent entirely upon the condition of the blood, though they have much to do with their production, but, after diseases become of a chronic character, they are dependent entirely upon conditions of the blood.

Healthy blood is composed of fibrine, 3 parts; globules 127, albumen, 72, salts, 8, water 790. Now it will be seen that as fibrine, albumen, and salts form nearly one-tenth of the blood, and considerable increase or diminution in either of these constituents must materially change the quality of the blood, and as a consequence derange all the physical functions.

Every analysis of the blood of persons laboring under disease, shows material changes from the natural standard. In every case there is an increase or a diminution in one or more of the blood constituents. These changes are not the result of a day, or of a week, because the formation of the blood is a very slow process, less much as but a minute proportion of the solids and fluids received into the stomach go to the formation of the blood. Now when we consider that all the solids composing the body are first in a fluid state, and are converted through the agency of the numerous minute blood vessels, we can readily conceive how any derangement of the blood components will eventually create a sufficient physical derangement to produce disease; and the disease will be of a type characteristic of the peculiar morbid change of the blood. Thus, for instance, a person takes a severe cold; the disease manifests itself in inflammation of the lungs, or rheumatism, inflammation of the brain, or in any other form as the peculiar condition of the blood would be likely to produce. Many persons fall into what is called a "decay" without any obvious predisposing cause, or explanation of an exceedingly nervous habit from which they can find no relief from medication. Such cases, it is claimed, are traceable to a change in the quality of the blood and can be gradually remedied and ultimately cured by such changes in diet as will conduce to restore the blood to a natural and healthy standard.

The experiments of the medical gentleman to whom we have alluded have enabled him to trace any difficulty in the quality of the blood as the primary cause of disease. There may be immediate exciting causes producing disease, it is true, but they will always assume a form characteristic by the peculiar condition of the blood, and which would eventually have manifested itself in disease similar in character to that produced by the immediate exciting cause.

We understand that the gentleman who is pursuing these investigations intends before long to present his views to the public at some length. If the result is what he claims it is, it will prove one of the most remarkable and beneficial discoveries of the age, and a great blessing to humanity.—Detroit Herald.

GAIT AN INDICATION OF CHARACTER.—Observing persons move slow, their heads move alternately from side to side, while they occasionally stop and turn round. Careful persons lift their feet high, and place them down flat and firm. Sometimes they step down, pick up some little obstruction and place it carefully by the side of the way. Calculating persons generally walk with their hands in their pockets, and their heads slightly inclined. Modest persons generally step softly, for fear of being observed. Timid persons often step off from a side-walk, on meeting another, and always go around a stone instead of stepping over it.—While awake persons "toss out," and have a long swing to their arms, while their hands shake about miscellaneously. Careless persons always club their toes. Lazy persons scrape about loosely, with their heels, and are first on one side of the walk and then on the other. Very strong minded persons have their toes directly in front of them, and have a kind of stump movement. Unstable persons walk fast and slow by turns. Venturous persons try all roads, frequently climb the fences instead of going through the gate, and very seldom open "both ends." Gross persons are apt to hit their knees together. Good natured persons snap their thumb and finger every few steps. Fun-loving persons have a kind of jig movement.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that on Friday last, Mr. S. W. Packard, living about 1½ miles south of this village, went to the timber near his dwelling, and commenced cutting down a tree which soon began to fall, and on looking in the direction it was coming down, saw his little son, about three years old, immediately under it, but only in time to see it instantly crushed.—The child had followed its father from the house so quietly that he was not aware that it was there. It lived only a few minutes, and was entirely unconscious. The head was broken, and it was otherwise much bruised.—Richland Co. Observer, July 20.

☞ An Albany paper says that five gallons of New York Milk was recently placed in a butt of cherry in that city, and the producer of the churning was two gallons of good whiskey.—Exchange.

O by let this fact become generally known in New York, and the rush for the sale of the triumphant cows will be greater than ever.—How soon one good result will follow—not a gill of the fluid will be left for the poor innocent babes.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

THE POT OF GOLD.

A PRETTY CUTE STORY.

Deacon Bancroft, though a very good man in the main, and looked up to with respect by all the inhabitants of the village of Centreville, was rumored to have, in Yankee parlance, 'a pretty smart eye to the main chance'—a peculiarity from which deacons are not always exempt.

In worldly matters he was decidedly well to do, having inherited a fine farm from his father, which was growing yearly more valuable. It might be supposed that under these circumstances, the deacon, who was fully able to do so, would have found a help meet to share his house and name. But the deacon was wary. Matrimony was to him in some measure a matter-of-money, and it was his firm resolve not to marry unless he could thereby enhance his worldly prosperity. Unhappily, the little village of Centreville, and the towns in the immediate vicinity, contained few who were qualified in this important particular, and of those there were probably none with whom the deacon's suit would have prospered

So it happened that year after year passed away, until Deacon Bancroft was in the prime of life—forty-five or thereabouts—and still unmarried, and in all human probability likely to remain so.

Deacon Bancroft's nearest neighbor was a widow.

The Widow Wells, who had passed through one matrimonial experience, was some three or four years younger than the Deacon Bancroft. She was still quite a comely woman. Unfortunately, the late Mr. Wells had not been able to leave her sufficient to make her independent of the world. All that she possessed was the small old fashioned house in which she lived, and a small amount of money, which was insufficient to support her and a little son of seven, though hardly to be classed as a 'productive'—of any thing but mischief.

The widow was therefore obliged to take three or four boarders, to eke out the scanty income, which of course imposed upon her considerable labor and anxiety.

It is not surprising then, that under these circumstances she should now and then have bethought herself of a second marriage, as a method of bettering her condition? Or again, need we esteem it a special wonder, if, in her reflections upon this point, she should have cast her eyes upon her neighbor, Deacon Bancroft? The deacon, as we have already said, was in flourishing circumstances. He would be able to maintain a wife in great comfort; and being one of the chief personages in the village, could accord her a prominent social position.

Some sagacious person has observed, however, that it takes two to make a match, a fact to be seriously considered; for in the present case it was exceedingly doubtful whether the worthy deacon, even if he had known the favorable opinion of his next neighbor, would have been inclined to propose changing her name to Bancroft, unless, indeed, a suitable motive was brought to bear upon him. Here was a chance for finessing.

One evening, after a day of fatiguing labor, the widow Wells sat at the fire in the sitting room, with her feet resting on the fender.

"If I am so situated as not to have to work so hard," she murmured, "I shall be happy. It's a hard life, keeping boarders. If I was only as well off as Deacon Bancroft——"

Still the widow kept up her thinking, and by-and-by her face brightened up. She had an idea, which she resolved to put into execution at the very earliest practical moment. What it was, the reader will discover in the sequel.

'Henry,' said she to her son the next morning, 'I want you to stop at Deacon Bancroft's as you go along to school, and ask if he will call and see me in the course of the morning or afternoon, just as he finds it most convenient.'

Deacon Bancroft was not a little surprised at the summons. However, about eleven o'clock, he called in. The widow had got on the dinner and had leisure to sit down. She appeared a little embarrassed.

'Henry told me that you would like to see me,' he commenced.

'Yes, Deacon Bancroft, I do, but I am very much afraid you will think very strange of it—at least what I have to say to you'

The Deacon very politely promised not to be surprised, although at the same time his curiosity was visibly excited.

'Suppose,' said the widow, casting down her eyes—'mind I am only supposing the case—suppose a person should find a pot of gold pieces in their cellar, would the law have a right to touch it, or would it belong to them.'

The Deacon pricked up his ears.

'A pot of gold pieces, widow? Why, unquestionably, the law would have nothing to do with it.'

'And the one who formerly owned the house, couldn't come forward and claim it, could he deacon,' inquired the widow, further, with apparent anxiety'

'No, madam, certainly not—when the house was disposed of, everything went with it, as matter of course.'

'I am glad to hear it, deacon. You won't think strange of the question, but it happened to occur to my mind, and I thought I would like to have it satisfied.'

'Certainly, widow, certainly,' said the deacon, abstractedly.

'And deacon, as you are here, I hope you'll stop to dinner with us. It will be ready punctually at twelve.'

'Well, no,' said the deacon, 'I'm obleeged to ye, but they will be expecting me home.'

'At any rate, deacon,' said the widow, taking a steaming mince pie from the oven, 'you won't object to taking a piece of my mince pie; you must know that I rather pride myself on my mince pies.'

The warm pie sent forth such a delicious odor' that the deacon was sorely tempted, and after saying, 'Well, really, with the intention of refusing, he finished by saying, 'On the whole, I guess I will, as it looks so nice.'

The widow was really a good cook and the deacon ate with much gusto the generous slice the widow cut for him; and after a little more chatting upon important subjects, withdrew in some mental perplexity.

"Was it possible,' thought he, 'that the widow could really have found a pot of gold in her cellar? She did not say so, to be sure, but why should she show so much anxiety, to know as to the proprietorship of treasure thus found, if she had not happened upon some? To be sure, so far as his knowledge extended, there was no one who occupied the house who would in the least be likely to lay up such an amount of gold; but the house was one hundred and fifty years old, as the very least, and undoubtedly had many occupants of which he knew nothing. It might be, after all. The widow's earnest desire to have him think it was only curiosity, likewise gave additional probability to the supposition.

"I will wait and watch," thought the deacon.

It so happened that Deacon Bancroft was one of the directors in a Savings' Institution, situated in the next town, and accordingly used to ride over there once or twice a month, to attend meetings of the Board.

On the next occasion of this kind Widow Wells sent over to know if he could carry her over with him, as she had a little business to attend to there.

The request was readily accorded. Arrived in town, Mrs. Wells requested to be set down at the Bank.

"Ha, ha!" thought the deacon; "that means something."

He said nothing, however, but determined to come back, and find out as he could readily, from the cashier, what business she had with the bank.

The widow tripped into the office, looking very nonchalant.

"Can you give me small bills for a five dollar gold piece," she inquired.

"With pleasure," was the reply.

"By the way," said she, "the bank is in quite a flourishing condition, is it not?"

"None in the State on a better footing," was the prompt response.

"You receive deposits, do you not?"

"Yes, Madam, we are receiving them every day."

"Do you receive as high as—as five thousand dollars?"

"No," said the cashier with some surprise; "or rather we do not allow interest on so large a sum. One thousand dollars is our limit. Did you know of any one who——"

"It is of no consequence," said the widow, hurriedly; "I only asked for curiosity. By the way, did you say how much interest you allowed on such deposits as come within your limit?"

"Five per cent, madam."

'Thank you, I only asked for curiosity. What a beautiful morning it is!'

And the widow tripped lightly out. Shortly afterwards the deacon entered.

'How's business now, Mr. Cashier?' he asked.

'About as usual'

'Had any new deposits lately?'

'None of any magnitude.'

'I brought over a lady this morning who seemed to have business with you.'

'The Widow Wells?'

'Yes.'

'Do you know,' asked the cashier, 'whether she has money left her lately?'

'None that I know of,' said the deacon, pricking up his ears. 'Why? Did she deposit any?'

'No; but she inquired whether we received deposits as high as five thousand dollars.'

'Indeed!' ejaculated the deacon. 'Was that all she came for?' he inquired a moment afterwards.

'No; she exchanged a gold piece for some bills.'

'Ha!' pondered the deacon, reflectively, 'did she give any reason for inquiring?'

'No, she said she only asked from curiosity.'

The deacon left the bank in deep thought.—He came to the conclusion that this curiosity only veiled a deeper motive. He no longer entertained a doubt that the widow had actually found a pot of gold in her cellar, and appearances seemed to indicate that its probable value was equal to five thousand dollars. The gold piece which she had exchanged at the bank appeared to confirm this story.

'I rather think' said the deacon complacently, 'I can see into a millstone about as far as most people,'—a statement, the literal truth of which I defy any one to question, though as to the prime fact of people's being able to see into a millstone at all, doubts have now and then intruded themselves upon my mind.

Next Sunday the Widow Wells appeared at church in a new and stylish bonnet, which led to some such remarks as these—

'How much vanity some people have, to be sure!'

'How a woman that has to keep boarders for a living, can afford to dash out with such a bonnet is more than I can tell.' I should think she was old enough to know better.

This last remark was made by a lady just six months younger than the widow, whose attempts to ensnare a husband had hitherto proved utterly unavailing.

'I suppose,' continued the same young lady, 'she is trying to catch a second husband with her finery. Before I would condescend to such means I'd drown myself.'

In the last available speech the young lady had unwittingly hit upon the true motive. The widow was intent upon catching Deacon Bancroft, and she indulged in a costly bonnet, not because she supposed he would be caught with finery, but because this would strengthen in his mind the idea that she had stumbled into hidden wealth.

The widow had calculated shrewdly, and the display had the effect she anticipated.

Monday afternoon, Deacon Bancroft found an errand that called him over to the widow's. It chanced to be about tea time. He was importuned to stay to tea, and, somewhat to her surprise, actually did.

The polite widow, who knew if the deacon's week point, brought on one of her best mince pies, a slice of which her guest partook of with zest.

'You'll take another piece, I know,'—said she persuasively.

'Really, I am ashamed,' said the deacon, and he passed his plate. 'The fact is,' he said, apologetically, 'your pies are so nice I don't know where to stop.'

'Do you call these nice,' said the widow, modestly. 'I only call them common. I can make mince pies when I set out to, but this time I didn't have such good luck as usual.'

'I should'nt want any better,' said the deacon emphatically.

'Then I hope if you like them, you'll drop in to tea often. We ought to be more neighborly, Deacon Bancroft."

Deacon Bancroft assented, and he meant what he said. The fact is, the deacon began to think the widow was a very charming woman. She was very comely, and she was such an excellent cook. Besides, he had no doubt in his own mind that she worth a considerable sum of money. What objection could there be to her becoming Mrs. Bancroft? He brought this question before her one evening. The widow blushed, professed to be greatly surprised—in fact she had never thought of the thing in her life—but, on the whole, she had thought highly of the deacon, and, to cut short the matter, accepted him.

A month afterwards she was installed as mistress of the deacon's large house, somewhat to the surprise of the village people, who could not conceive how she had brought him over.

Some weeks after the ceremony the deacon ventured to inquire about the pot of gold which she had found in the cellar.

'Pot of gold!' she exclaimed in surprise, 'I know of none.'

'But,' said the deacon disconcerted; 'you know you asked me about whether the law could claim it.'

'O, lor! deacon, only asked from curiosity!'

'And was that the reason you made inquiries at the bank?'

'Certainly. What else could it be?'

The deacon went out to the barn, and for about half an hour sat in silent meditation. At the end of that time, he ejaculated, as a closing consideration, 'After all she makes good mince pies!'

It gives me pleasure to state that the union between the deacon and the widow proved a very happy one, although to the end of his life, he never could quite make up his mind about 'That Pot of Gold."

COMMERCIAL & FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, Thursday Evening, July 22, 1858.

MONEY MATTERS.—We note a continued scarcity of Exchange in the money market, with an abundance of currency for all business purposes. There is considerable outside demand for good paper, but very little of the kind to be found in the street, as the Banks are taking all the well secured paper offering at the usual rates. Exchange is selling at 1¾ per cent, and the demand to-day was active. The Banks are discounting freely to their customers at 10 per cent. There is rather a tendency to a scarcity of silver. Gold is selling at the same rate, 1 per cent. The Chicago Press & Tribune, of to-day, says that the demand for Eastern Exchange there yesterday, was very active at rates firm at 1 per cent premium Gold was in good request at 1¾ to 1¾ per cent., and adds:

Those who come here with money expecting to pick up first-class paper at every corner at 1½@3 per cent per month, will find themselves mistaken. The bankers take all of this class freely at 10@12 per cent per annum. A few days since some parties came here from Eight to Ten months was offered a prominent banker, who declined to purchase it at less than a discount of 18 per cent per annum. Another banker took it at 12 per cent.

The constant advance in the New York market, and the general impression that the incoming crop will be a light one, have stimulated grain operators to venture upon much higher prices] than were anticipated a month ago. Our market opened this morning with an unusual degree of firmness, and in some instances both wheat and oats were held at an advance on yesterday's quotations. Buyers were a little tenacious in coming up to the work, and transactions are in consequence not so heavy as yesterday, though the sales to-day are generally at higher figures. Indeed the highest prices that have been obtained this season, were paid to-day, both for winter and spring wheat. Oats are held at an advance, and receipts somewhat lighter. The telegraph this evening, apprises us of an important advance on both wheat and flour in the N. Y. market. The first lot of new wheat arrived to-day and was sold at $1 per bushel. It was a nice sample of white winter. We quote to-day:

WHEAT.—Held at an advance; market very firm but transactions light. We note the following sales: 4,000 bu choice No. 1 at 77c f. o. b.; 1,000 bus good do at 75c; on platform 350 bags extra club at 77c; 200 bags good do at 75c, both to mill; 210 bags choice No. 1 at 75c, 500 bags do at 74c; 140 bags common do at 72c; 100 bags prime white winter at $1, and 30 bags do new at same price, also 27 bags of an inferior quality at 80c.

OATS.—Holders firm and asking an advance. Sales of 800 bags at 32½c; 552 bags at 32c, and 2,500 bus at 33½c f. o. b.

FREIGHTS.—Dull and unchanged. The sch. International loads with oats on owners account.

FLOUR.—Quiet and holders firm. Sales of 20 barrels "White Creek Mills" spring extra at $6,75 delivered.

BARLEY, RYE, Corn and Potatoes are unchanged. New potatoes are selling to-day at 37c; old at previous prices.

EGGS and Butter are dull and unchanged.

HIDES—Are in good demand at 5¾@6 for green, 6@7 for do salted, &c., &c.

WOOL.—We notice that wool is advancing in the eastern markets, and in consequence is held here at higher prices. Very little however, is offering in that market. The quotations to-day are common 24c, ¼ blood 27c, ¾ do 29, ¾ 32@34c, and full blood 35@37¼. Choice Saxony is held at 38c.

NEW YORK MARKET.

New York, July 22.

FLOUR—Market advanced—sales 6,000 bbls at 4,65@4,70 for superfine State; 4,80@4,85 for extra do; 4,65@4,70 for superfine western; 4,80@4,75 for common to medium do. 4,75@4,80 for shipping brands extra round hoop Ohio. Canadian flour higher—no stock sales. Rye flour—$4@5.

WHEAT—Market unsettled and nominally 1@2c higher; stock and receipts quite light, and there is hardly enough doing to establish prices; shippers are disposed to wait for receipts that have been kept back by the break in the canals; sales of 2,000 bus at 0,99 for universal Mil and Ohio, choice spring nominal at 93a95c; winter red at 1,07a1,10; white at 1,10a1, 6.

RYE—Firmer—sales at 79c.

CORN—Firmer; sales 15,000 bus at 65a66 for damaged to very good unsound mixed western.

OATS—Steady; 45¾a47 for State and western.

PORK—Steady; sales 500 bbls at 17,a17,50 for mess; 14 for prime.

BEEF—Unchanged.

CUT MEATS—Firmer.

LARD—Dull; sales at 11¾a11¾.

BUTTER—Steady; sales at 12a17 for Ohio; 15a19 for State.

CHEESE—Dull; 8a7.

WHISKY—Sales 800 bbls at 24.

STOCKS.—The stock market is not characterized by any activity, and exchange quiet but firm at former rates. Money keeps in large supply, with not a very active enquiry. C & R 119¾, R I 107¾, P F W & C 84¾, do Land Grants 81¾, G & C 93¾, M C 89, M & M 27¾.

BUFFALO MARKET.

BUFFALO, July 23.

Rather more doing in flour. Market firmer, with sales of 1,800 bbls at 5,75 for good superfine; 4a4,35 for good to choice extra; 4,50a4,75 for double extra.

WHEAT—Good supply and active demand; market firm with sales of 71,000 bus at 70a73¾ warm Chicago, spring, 76 sound do, 75 Racine club, 79 red winter Lind, 1 02 prime white Canadian, 74a75 for unsound Mil. club.

CORN—Large supply and market firm, with a fair demand. Sales 30,000 bus at 56 for hot, 60@61 for sound.

OATS—Sales 15,000 bus at 35 for unsound, 37¾a38 for sound.

WHISKY—Sales 800 bbls at 21¾a22.

Canal freights unchanged.

THE CROPS IN IOWA.—A correspondent of the Burlington Hawk Eye, writing from Iowa City, under date of July 10th, says:

"The prospects for the coming crops are discouraging to the farmers. Wheat in this section, tributary to the market, will be, say, one half crop; oats, very doubtful. Corn looks well at present, and if favorable keeps off until late in the season, will make a fair yield."

THE CROPS IN JEFFERSON COUNTY.—The Watertown Democrat is enthusiastic in hopes of an abundant harvest. In its issue of yesterday, it says:

"We are now in the midst of that greatest of Providential mercies and earthly benefits—an abundant harvest. Thus far the season has been highly favorable for gathering and securing crops. The weather has been cool, clear and steady—no storms have come to damage the new mown grass or put back the work in the broad and golden fields. Laborers are numerous and easily hired at reasonable wages. All looks well for a glorious "Harvest Home."

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in thousands of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arise from teething or from any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars, and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is sold as a medicine.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New-York, is on the outside wrapper.

NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINES

Latest Improvement—Watson's Patent.

THE MANUFACTURER and Agent desire to call the attention of the public to this cheap labor saving machine, and now, since the great improvements which have been added to it, recommend it with the utmost confidence, as it has been in operation in this city a sufficient length of time to prove its utility. These machines are made strong and durable, and with one fourth part of the care required to manage a higher priced machine. They will do as much work, and as well as the most expensive. Each machine is thoroughly tested before it is sold, and warranted to give satisfaction, if the instructions are followed with even an ordinary amount of care, and will be kept in order one year free of charge.

Price of improved machine, complete, (including stand,) $25. Persons wishing to purchase a machine are invited to bring them to work with them, and test the machine to their entire satisfaction, before purchasing.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce the best, most perfect purgative which the sick require. Such remedies are shown to at these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are so pleasant to take that no child will refuse them, while the penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel the disease. They purge out the foul humors of the system, and give it tone and energy. They stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to their whole system. Sick and ailing they find that they are cured of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill.—While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in all classes of cases, the safest as well as the most efficient can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable are free from any risk of harm. Cures of unparalleled character are they, and such publicity has been given to them of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing direction for their use and certificates of their cures of numerous complaints.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they may make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S Pills and take no other. No other they can give you so completely the benefit you require, or cure you so perfectly.

Agent for Albany and Troy, O. N. CHAPIN, No. 85 Quay Street, Albany.

No transhipment at Albany or Troy.

In consequence of the great reduction of tolls on the Erie Canal, and the low rates of freight, the Agents of this company will transport all kinds of produce and merchandise to and from New York, Boston, Albany and Troy this season at less rates than any previous season.

In case of any damage or loss the same will be settled at the point of destination.

Having taken the agency of the above Company at this city, I would solicit a call from the friends and former patrons of the Company, also my own friends, before making any arrangements or agreements elsewhere.
